IDAHO SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, Idaho Falls, ID Fall 2006 – Fall 2007
JUDICIAL LAW CLERK

Researched legal issues and drafted nearly fifty judicial opinions and trial decisions over ten months. Prepared for trials by researching and collating jury instructions, assembling trial notebooks, and performing preliminary research on anticipated legal issues. Assisted during trial by consulting with the Judge and writing ad hoc memoranda on various legal issues raised at trial. Researched and prepared sentencing guidelines for arraignments each week. Selected Accomplishments:

- ♦ Drafted opinions with extremely complex procedural posture and legal difficulty.
- ♦ During a trial, researched and wrote a memorandum on a difficult procedural issue which the Judge followed, directly resulting in a multimillion dollar award; it is anticipated the decision will be upheld on appeal to the Idaho Supreme Court.
- ♦ Drafted multiple opinions regarding land use issues and real estate transaction law.
- ♦ Demonstrated a consistent work ethic and task awareness under no supervision.
